Torch visit will 'boost trade'

EVERY effort is being made to boost trade when the Olympic Torch Relay visits Lyme Regis on Thursday of next week (July 12th).

With the combination of austerity measures and appalling weather, Lyme is experiencing one of its worst summers for many years.

With more rain forecast every day until the Olympic flame arrives in town, the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, has dispelled concerns that the council is trying to restrict the number of people expected in the town.

Olympic Torch News

Just 8 days to go

Councillor Holman told the View from Lyme Regis: "Nothing could be further from the truth. We are doing our utmost to encourage as many people as possible to witness this once-in-a-lifetime event and that includes welcoming as many visitors as possible."

"We have been told by the authorities to expect a big crowd, possibly bigger than on Red Arrows day, so we are doing our utmost to make sure we can accommodate safely everyone who wants to see the Olympic flame come to Lyme."

Councillor Holman, who has been chairing an Olympic Torch Organisation Group for several months to co-ordinate the visit, pointed out that all district and town council car parks will be free for the day.

No park and ride will be operational during the day but the town council is opening the Strawberry Field for additional parking.

Ambassadors

The council is also recruiting up to 175 "Olympic Ambassadors" who will act as stewards and marshals on the day and arrangements that are being put in place to ensure that the public can see the torch pass through the town in safety are being adopted by other communities in the area.

Said the Mayor: "We are conscious that the town is having a very bad summer at the moment."

"The Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations brought many people into the town and we are determined to do all we can to make sure the Olympic Torch relay will also boost trade."

"This has certainly been the case in other host towns and I am sure Lyme will be packed."

Councillor Holman said banners had been displayed prominently in the town centre welcoming the torch and 3,000 leaflets were being distributed in and around Lyme Regis giving all the information necessary to see the Olympic flame.

The torch is scheduled to pass through the town centre at around 3.35 pm with three torch exchange points at the junction with Pooles Court in Church Street, outside Lloyds Bank in Broad Street and at the junction of Pound Street and Cobb Road.

The torch is due to leave The Cobb at 4.05 pm by convoy and return through the town via Pound Street, Broad Street and Charmouth Road before moving on to Burton Bradstock.

■ TWO more of Lyme Regis' Honoured Citizens were presented their certificates by the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, recently, Diana Dixon, nominated for her involvement with Lyme Regis Gig Club, and Godfrey Thomas, nominated as former long-standing chairman of the Town Mill, were both presented their certificates at the recent Lyme Regis Development Trust annual general meeting. Both were unable to attend the official ceremony for the town's 32 Honoured Citizens, named to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, during celebrations in June. They will also receive a lapel badge.

'Raincession' hits Lyme

A NEW word has been coined to sum up the cause of Lyme's poor summer season - "raincession".

A combination of appalling weather and a stagnant economy has resulted in traders reporting that business is down by as much as 50 per cent on last year.

The word "raincession" has been coined by Tukxi taxi owner Dennis Spacey on his Twitter feed.

Tourist Information Centre manager Lorraine Knowles said the weather was definitely having "a big impact" on the number of enquiries with footfall figures down around 1,000 per month in April, May and June.

"We are getting enquiries for the rest of the summer but people tend to leave it to the last minute before booking accommodation to see what the weather is like," she said.

STUART Truelove and his wife Lorrie manage Everycare Wessex, which is based in Dorchester. The company provides nursing and care staff throughout the region.

Here Stuart talks about his reasons for working in the care sector and what makes Everycare such a popular service provider, for clients and staff alike.

Stuart is 66 years old and lives near Cattistock.

■ HOW did you end up running a nursing and care services company?

Until about the age of 50, I worked in the property industry, firstly in architecture and then as a project manager. I finally ended up as a director of a plc.

My wife and I decided upon a lifestyle change and moved to Dorset 17 years ago, with the intention of starting our own business, but at the time we did not know what. We started the business in 1997 by buying a franchise, enabling us to benefit from the skills and knowledge base of an established organisation.

■ WHAT drew you towards an interest in care services?

I got into care work as a result of my parents approaching the end of their lives. A search for a suitable care home for my mother, by then suffering from dementia, opened my eyes to the care industry and the huge variation in the quality of care that was available.

■ WHAT makes Everycare a good service provider?
It is down to a combination of quality, reliability and having a great team of employees. Neither my wife nor I could ever be satisfied unless we sincerely believed that we were doing our utmost to be the very best at what we do.

For some elements of our service we are effectively an emergency service, and by this I mean that when for instance a hospital contacts us for cover staff, they will have already striven to resolve any staff shortages internally. So if they book our staff, and we were to let them down in some way, they have very few options left to them to resolve the matter.

■ WHAT is your mantra?

'Never let the customer down!'

■ WHAT gives you the greatest sense of job satisfaction?

We are a family led business, often intimately involved with the families of those for whom we care, and that gives great job satisfaction. But most of all I love the fact that it is a people business, both in respect of our staff and clients.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ WHAT kind of feedback do you get from your clients?

We get a lot of positive feedback from our clients, both corporate and private. We are required by legislation to have a robust quality assurance system, but often the most welcome feedback of all is the unsolicited letters of thanks that we receive, very often from the families of those for whom we have cared.

Some of the letters can be intensely moving, and we always ensure that the staff who actually delivered the care get the thanks

■ WHAT skills or experience do people need in order to work for Everycare?

Basically nothing other than having a caring nature. Many of our staff join us as novices, and we have a superb training regime that gives them the confidence and knowledge they need. We have had a few who have started with us as a care assistant, then progressed to being a health care assistant (working in care homes and hospitals), and who have then gone on to undergo their nurse training.

■ HOW many staff do you employ?

We employ approximately 130 staff, ranging from registered nurses, health care assistants and community care assistants.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the lottery?

Depends how much. Let us pretend it is mega-millions, in which case I would settle sufficient upon my two daughters to ensure their financial stability for life, and probably buy a super yacht and a holiday home somewhere in Provence.

But I would also set up a Dorset Dementia Centre as a charity, with its main aim being to continually gather in the very best knowledge and training from around the World and disseminate the benefits to sufferers, their families and carers in Dorset.

■ WHAT else do you get up to?

I am vice-chairman of the Bournemouth, Dorset & Poole Care Providers Association. My main hobby is sailing and I am vice commodore of Portland Yacht Club. Mundane as it may seem, I also love gardening.

■ DAVID Cozens, chairman of the Lyme Regis Club for Young People trustees, presents a cheque for £9,000 to Ken Whetlor, chairman of the Lyme Regis Gig Club youth section, watched by Gig Club chairman Marcus Dixon and young members

Gig Club receives £9,000 for youth section training skiffs

A GENEROUS donation of £9,000 from the trustees of the former Club for Young People in Lyme Regis will enable the town's ever-expanding gig club to purchase training skiffs for its newly-formed youth section.

A cheque was presented by trustees chairman David Cozens to youth section President Ken Whetlor outside the Boat Building Academy on Monmouth Beach where the club's third wooden gig is being constructed by boat builder Gail McGarva.

In presenting the cheque, Mr Cozens said all those volunteers who had worked so hard at the former Boys'

Club in Church Street, now the home of the Hub Youth Club, was being put to such good use.

Gig club chairman Marcus Dixon thanked the trustees for such a generous donation which would enable the club to commission the building of two training skiffs at a cost of £15,000.

The Gig Club currently has a senior membership of 130 with 14 juniors under the age of 18.

The club has one fibre glass gig (Revenge) and two wooden gigs (Rebel and Black Ven) with a third under construction.

Bright lamp posts may be shaded

NEW lamp posts in Lyme Regis which are too bright and causing a nuisance may have shades fitted, town councillor Lorna Jenkin has reported.

Following complaints of new lamp posts being too bright, as published in the View From Lyme Regis "Lyme Letters" section over previous weeks, Councillor Jenkin has reported that electric company SSE is willing to consider putting shades on the most intrusive lamp posts to prevent them glaring into upstairs windows.

She explained: "Homes on the west side of Anning Road and Kingsway are set below street level which might be the reason for the upstairs glare as mentioned in the editor's column a few weeks ago, as the lights are generally not supposed to be a nuisance to upper windows.

"If they are too bright

■ COUNCILLOR JENKIN: New bright lights could be shaded

SSE are willing to consider putting a shade on the nearest lamp to keep the light from upstairs windows. I have spoken to the engineers who need the numbers and addresses of the offending poles.

"If anyone would like to walk around with me to identify them in those streets or elsewhere, please contact me on 01297 443703. Otherwise I will walk round and make a list myself from observation, but I might then miss some, especially as it is summer.

"The lights may seem bright but I was informed by the advance street lighting team that in fact the new lights use less electricity and are not as bright; they are just more efficient, whiter and are more focussed on the ground rather than up into the sky and onto houses.

"The lights have been re-spaced, some wider apart, some closer, to give a more even coverage."

Councillor Jenkin is one of the local councillors who has been working with Dorset County Council lighting engineers in the replacement of lamps across Dorset. She explained that the county council has experienced an increasing number of poles crashing down because of erosion and pointed out that in Lyme Regis posts in Bridge Street were covered in rust.

Councillor Jenkin added: "The contractors have been slow in the replacement project of Lyme Regis because of a shortage of electricians, but have recently re-started and hope to tackle the 'old town' and Broad Street this next winter.

"The council has provided £5,000 to pay for heritage style lamps in the oldest streets of Lyme and we hope you will be pleased with the results.

"In 2014 Lyme is scheduled to have its lights switched off for five and a half hours at night from midnight in winter and 1am in summer, except for the main roads and areas considered unsafe which will stay on all night. That should help to silence those cockerels who crow all night!"

New lifeboat saves kayaker from drowning in rough seas

A KAYAKER who fell overboard from his boat in heavy seas was saved by Lyme Regis lifeboat crew in a dramatic rescue.

The incident took place on Sunday evening just off Axmouth, with the lifeboat being launched at 8.12pm after the man's shouts for help were heard ashore. The crew reached the 45-year-old man, seven miles from the harbour, 13 minutes later. He was found quarter of a mile off shore and was only visible when he waved a paddle due to the rough seas.

The kayaker has been in the water for about 45 minutes and had swallowed a lot of water and was suffering from the cold. He was quickly pulled aboard the "Spirit of Loch Fyne" lifeboat and given immediate first aid before being winched into the coastguard helicopter from Portland and taken to Dorchester Hospital.

Crew member Jon Broome said: "We got the man out of the water very quickly and insulated him to keep him warm. Our training for this particular type of rescue proved invaluable. The man was close to drowning and we were operating in a Force 5 wind with three metre swells. Our regular training exercises with the helicopter for just such an incident also proved very important."

It is thought that the new Atlantic 85 "Spirit of Loch Fyne" lifeboat arrived at the scene seven minutes faster than the old Atlantic 75 "Pearl of Dorset" boat, which was replaced in March, would have.

Helmsman Dave Street said: "In our opinion, those seven minutes were crucial to the survival of the casualty. The new lifeboat is faster than the one it replaced and carries a crew of four instead of three."

Other crew members aboard were Tim Edwards and John Gage.

Baby joy three times over for Lyme sisters

IT will be a memorable summer for three Lyme Regis sisters, who are all expecting babies over the next two months.

Louise and Maxine Rawlins and their sister Lorraine Chantry are all pregnant and due over the next few months.

Lorraine is due this week with the sex of her baby unknown. Her sisters were both shocked to find they were pregnant having both been told they couldn't carry any more children.

Maxine is due on August 16th and is expecting a baby girl while Louise is looking forward to the birth of her baby boy on September 2nd.

She is hoping she will give birth early so that all three cousins will be in the same school year.

Tunnel plays host to Team GB pistol shooter

A MEMBER of Great Britain's Olympic Pistol Squad has been gearing up for the big games by training just outside of Lyme Regis.

Professional pistol shooter Georgina Geikie has been training to compete in the Olympic games at The Tunnel Target Sports Centre on Axminster Road, near Char-

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

mouth.

Olympic Torchbearer Georgina hopes to be right on target for the games, to be held at the specially created Woolwich Olympic shooting venue, and has been putting in a great deal of time to ensure she is at her best for the competition "on her own home soil".

Number one female pistol shooter in the UK,

Georgina was the only one to qualify as a female pistol shooter for Team GB and is part of the British Shooting Squad.

During her shooting practice at the Tunnel Georgina brought along her Olympic torch, which she carried through her hometown in Okehampton.

This is an exciting time for both Georgina and those at the Tunnel, which is sponsoring the GB Shooting Squad as they work toward the main Olympic shooting events.

Georgina said: "It is a fantastic help to be able to have facilities to train here in the UK in one of two basic places to shoot.

"I am very thankful to the staff at the Tunnel who have made my training so accessible and helped me through my training and practice for my role in the British Shooting Squad.

"Training is a major part of being an Olympian and I am very much looking forward to competing at the end of the month."

The Tunnel Target Sports Centre is one of two approved venues in the UK where Georgina and the rest of the GB squad can legally shoot, with a 10 metre, 25 metre and 50 metre range on offer.

The site has been going from strength to strength since it opened in July 2010, offering both a club shooting facility and an opportunity for local groups, ranging from the WI to the cubs and scouts, to also try their hand at shooting, as well as welcoming parties for celebrations such as birthdays or hen and stag nights.

The Tunnel has now been given planning permission to extend, with a proposed 100 metre indoor shooting range due to be completed by September and, in the last two years, the grounds have gained an additional 15 acres making it the perfect shooting location.

Staff at the Tunnel now hope they can expand further offering other shooting sports, such as archery, and creating an additional function room.

There has been huge involvement from a number of local businesses which have backed and supported the Tunnel and its involvement with the GB Squad.

Proprietor, Richard Clist thanked the many involved including DC Services, RWS and ongoing support from local MP Oliver Letwin.

New President for Rotary Club

THE Rotary Club of Lyme Regis has welcomed incoming President Peter Mills, who lives in Wootton Fitzpaine, pictured here on the right receiving his chain of office from outgoing President David Bettes.

Peter was a founding member of the Rotary Club of Yiewsley & West Drayton in Middlesex and was President of that club in 2001 and 2002. He is a Rotary Paul Harris Fellow and has served in Rotary for some 50 years.

Mr Mills said: "We have been extremely fortunate to have had such a strong leader as David Bettes for the past year. He has laid a strong and popular foundation for the growth of the Rotary Club in Lyme Regis in these challenging times and has helped attract five new members in the last session.

"The club is thriving, the programme of events is entertaining and stimulating, meetings are enjoyable and we continue to raise significant funds for charities both in Lyme Regis and environs and beyond, as well as serving the community in other ways. My challenge is to build on that base, and I intend to do that, but also to ensure that we have fun while doing it."

If you wish to find out more about the Rotary Club, which raises around £10,000 annually for local and international charities, visit www.lymeregistry.org or contact secretary@lymeregistry.org

Uplyme Holiday Club returns

THE annual Uplyme Holiday Club will return this summer with its own twist on an Olympic theme – the Uplympics.

The dates for this year's club are July 31st to August 2nd, from 10am to 2pm at Uplyme Village Hall each day and with a barbecue for the whole family on the afternoon on August 2nd.

The club is open to children in years 1 to 6 and will include a wide range of activities, including games, arts and crafts, cookery, sports, storytelling and Bible stories.

Entrance fee costs £2 for the first child and a further £1 for each sibling.

Organisers welcome CRB checked adult helpers.

LYME Bay Photographic Club will be hosting another of its popular quiz nights at The Inn Plaiice, Pilot Boat Inn, in Lyme Regis on Wednesday, July 25th starting at 7.30pm.

Teams of up to six people are welcome for an admission fee of £2 per person or £1 for young children.

The winning team will receive prizes and there will also be a raffle.

The club is holding its annual photographic exhibition over August 1st and 2nd also at The Inn Plaiice, from 10am to 5pm both days.

The exhibition will feature photographs taken by club members with greetings cards, post cards and prints will for sale.

Surgery with town council

TOWN councillors Chris Clipson and Terry O'Grady will be holding a surgery on Saturday, July 7th between 2pm and 3pm in the Langmoor Room at the Marine Parade shelters.

All local residents are welcome to come and put forward questions and issues to them.

A new way to promote local events

ORGANISATIONS wishing to publicise events to townspeople and visitors now have an additional way of doing so.

The new source of information about what's happening in the town is the events screen in the Jubilee Pavilion of the Marine Parade Shelters (pictured inset). Working from manual updates since the opening of the shelters last July, this has recently become fully automated.

The screen, visible twenty-four hours a day, now takes its information directly from the town council's tourism website, www.lymeregis.org. On a continuous loop, it shows details for the week ahead with the time and place, followed by a listing of the major events for the rest of the year. After midnight it drops off the day just ended and picks up the next seventh day.

The idea for such a screen was part of the planning for the restored shelters at an early stage. Travellers on the continent will be familiar with the large screens in many towns giving information about current activities, as well as date, time and the temperature. Their dominating appearance would not be appropriate for Lyme Regis, which is why the more modest, indoor events screen was envisaged.

Its integration with the events pages of the tourism website marks a big step towards efficiency and effectiveness, and it opens up the possibility of trouble-free extension. With no more than a basic computer, an internet connection and a screen, other locations in the town could display the same information.

Those wishing to test this can visit http://www.lymeregis.org/event_screen where they will find themselves viewing what a visitor to the Jubilee Pavilion is seeing.

For local organisations and for those arranging community events, this is a fresh form of publicity. All that it takes is to ensure that the relevant request is submitted to the tourism website by emailing events@lymeregis.org

Date set for Lyme Lympics...

... and Conger Coddling is on the programme!

THE Lyme Regis alternative to the Olympic Games, the crazy Lyme Lympics sand games, will now be held on Wednesday, August 1st starting at 3pm on the town's main beach.

The eccentric Lympic games will feature the return of popular traditional game conger coddling, plus stinging nettle-eating, binocular football and wife-jousting among the oddball events.

The Lympics organiser, Lyme artist Hugh Dunford-Wood, has invited the reigning world champion nettle-eater, Tiverton fishmonger Sam Cunningham, to lead the field in the stinger-eating dash in which contestants have just three minutes to swallow as many nettles as they can.

Conger coddling – like bar billiards but played with human skittles and a dead eel – was a traditional attraction at Lifeboat Week for three decades until it was dropped in 2006 by order of RNLI HQ in Poole after an objection from a person claiming to be an animal rights activist.

But following huge support locally the Lympic committee is now to bring the conger coddling back and is talking to town and county authorities about traffic control on the day, as the last conger event drew more than 2,000 visitors to the town.

The alternative games were originally scheduled to take place over the jubilee weekend but had to be postponed due to bad weather.

If you have a story for Lyme Regis, contact reporter Francesca Evans on 01297 446154 or email francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Boost to jubilee funds

A CHEQUE for £292 was donated toward the Diamond Jubilee celebrations in Lyme Regis by the University of the Third Age (U3A) Heritage Coast branch. The money was raised at the U3A branch's popular 1950s tea party held over the jubilee weekend in the Marine Parade shelters. A cheque was presented to the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, by party organiser Val Doney (pictured above). The money will go towards covering the costs of the self-financing celebrations.

Charmouth Scouts receive another boost to campaign for crumbling headquarters

■ GOING FOR GOLD: The 1st Charmouth Scouts with Brit Valley Rotary Club President Jon Winkle and President-elect Kym Spink in front of their dilapidated headquarters

TWO members of the Brit Valley Rotary Club dropped in on the 1st Charmouth Scout Group last week to present them with a cheque for £300 towards the refurbishment of their headquarters.

The money will help swell further the scout group's "Going for Gold" fundraising project, in which the scouts receive bronze, silver and gold badges after reaching certain targets to help fix up their dilapidated HQ.

On presenting the cheque, the President of the Brit Valley Rotary Club, Jon Winkle, said: "We chose to support youth-related charities this year and are delighted to be able to contribute towards the refurbishment of the 1st Charmouth Scout's HQ."

President-elect Kym Spink added: "Having seen it first-hand, I can see that the money will be put to good use as there are lots of tasks to tackle."

Cub leader Toni Green said: "With more and more youngsters joining our cub pack and our scout troop, all the leaders are keen to see the HQ transformed into a fit place in which they can meet. This donation will help us achieve our goal and improve the facilities we can offer to our members."

Anyone wishing to find out more information about Going for Gold or make a donation or should contact the scout group chairman, Tom Summers, on summers_tom@hotmail.com

CHILDREN at St Michael's Pre-School in Lyme Regis were treated to a walk on the beach last week.

The tiny tots walked to Rinky Tinks Ice Cream Parlour on Marine Parade where they enjoyed an ice cream despite the dull weather.

Pre-school assistant Georgie Williams then arranged for them to go aboard fishing boat "Kraken", skippered by her father Nick Williams. The children were shown different sea creatures including lobsters, crabs, mackerel and dog fish.

They were also taught about the importance of life jackets, shown around the cabin and had a go on the steering wheel.

The children finished the day on the beach where they played games and built sand-castles.

THE annual Lyme Regis Gardens Competition has been launched this week with 10 categories.

Judging will take place on Thursday, July 19th by Royal Horticultural Society judge Sydnie Bones and vegetable expert Paul Dunsford, both from Kilmington.

The 10 categories are as follows: All businesses, retired people's gardens, houses, flats, patio gardens, group gardens, window boxes, hanging baskets and containers, home produce in containers, home produce in gardens, children's home produce.

Over 100 entries in Town Mill's annual art competition

THE Town Mill in Lyme Regis launched its 5th annual Open Art Competition and Exhibition with a preview night last Saturday afternoon.

Organisers said the event was a great success and very well attended with 113 works of art entered into the competition. They were judged by Anna Powell, curator of Sladers Yard in West Bay, and artist and writer Vivienne Light.

Prizes were handed out by Town Mill chairman Chris Savory with first place of £250 going to Gerry Dudgeon for his painting "West Dorset Snowfields". Second prize of £100 went to Elaine Dixon for "Circus Girl on a Pony" and Louise Waugh winning third prize of £50 with "Beachcombing with Dog".

Also named highly commended were Barbara Karn and Bernard Miles, and commendations were given to Camille Clipson and Ian McGregor.

With such a high quality of entries and diverse styles and subject matter the judges had a difficult task on their hands.

Speaking on their choice of winner, they said: "We chose this because of the qualities of light, the angles and the shadows falling across hills we recognised as West Dorset. Compositionally strong, the layering and texturing of paint are highly accomplished."

All entries can still be viewed at the Town

Mill Malthouse until July 22nd and the People's Choice Prize is still up for grabs. It will be awarded to the artist who receives the most votes from those viewing the exhibition.

The Town Mill would like to thank its sponsors: Creative Solutions, Image Art, Onni Framing & Design, Martin Diplock, Tesco Express Lyme Regis, The Co-Op Lyme Regis, British Fossils, Axminster Printing, Mariners Hotel, The Harbour Inn, The Royal Lion Hotel, The Alexandra Hotel, Town Mill Trustees, Town Mill Brewery, Brian Matravets, Town Mill Cheesemonger, Town Mill Pottery and the Mill Cafe.

PRIZEWINNER: Town Mill chairman Chris Savory presents a £250 prize to winner Gerry Dudgeon

Uplyme couple named winners of unique jubilee art contest

LYME Regis artist Christine Allison has announced the winners of her competition to guess the 60 events depicted in her Diamond Jubilee picture "Sixty Years".

The picture was displayed in the recent exhibition at the Town Mill Galleries, organised by ArtsFest and the Town Mill Arts Guild. It created much interest and speculation amongst the public.

There were 22 entrants to the competition but Jack and Imogen Thomas of Uplyme were the outright winners with 59 correct answers.

Mr Thomas said: "It was such fun. We really enjoyed the challenge but did have to do quite a bit of research before handing in our entry form."

Artist Christine said: "I was after 60 correct answers but 59 was the highest score, so I was happy to give Jack and Imogen £59 in prize money. Well done to them both!"

TOP SCORERS: Mr and Mrs Thomas with their prize money sponsored by Harry May Boat Trips

The competition was sponsored by Harry May Boat Trips (07974 753287) and the actual picture was bought by a visitor to the exhibition from Birmingham.

If you entered the competition and want to check your answers, they are available in the news section of the website www.lymeregis.org

DORSET Seafood Festival will celebrate its return in 2012 (7th & 8th July), with Sarah Ayton, local Olympic gold medal winner opening the event. With the London 2012 Olympic & Paralympic sailing events taking place in Weymouth & Portland, the Dorset Seafood Festival is set to embrace this once-in-a-lifetime historic event. The Dorset Seafood Festival 2012 will be the most ambitious to date and is the last official local event before the Olympic 'lock-down', when Weymouth & Portland will be dressed as a host borough to the London 2012 Olympic & Paralympic Games.

The Dorset Seafood Festival 2012 will once again animate the beautifully picturesque and historic setting of Weymouth harbour and due to popular demand will extend out to the Weymouth Pavilion forecourt to accommodate over 80 stalls. Pommery Champagne corks will be popping once again as the festival's title sponsor, oysters will be shucked and an array of fresh seafood and fish dishes will be prepared across this vast range of festival stalls.

Celebrity chefs will also be in abundance, sharing their top culinary tips on the demonstration stages, located on either side of the harbour during this two-day event. The 2012 line up will include; Mark Hix, Mitch Tonks, Mat Follas, Ashley Palmer-Watts, Lesley Waters and River Cottage's famous forager John Wright.

But it's not all gastronomy; there will be attractions and features for those whose palates are not pescetarian. A diving tank attraction will showcase the skills of the Historical Diving Society, touch pools with different species of fish and crustaceans will keep children and marine-lovers entertained, and the annual Weird Fish Across the Harbour Swim will kick start the festival at 10.30am on Saturday 7th July.

'Dorset Seafood Festival is one the most well attended events in the area, attracting around 50,000 visitors in 2011. With the London 2012 Olympic & Paralympic Games sailing events taking place here this year we want to make the 2012 Dorset Seafood Festival a truly memorable event for the locals, visitors and all the people who are involved in it creation. 2012 is the year to be in Dorset and we are proud to be holding one of the largest seafood festivals in the UK here once again,' said Brian Cooper, Dorset Seafood Festival committee member.

Consistency is Key with Bluebird Care

AT Bluebird Care (Weymouth & West Dorset) we recognise the importance of providing consistency with our care at home service. We understand why our customers may find it difficult to allow different Care Workers into their home and how uncomfortable it could make them feel if care was provided by many different people. That is why we seek to ensure our customers see only Care Workers with whom they are familiar and always prioritise consistency when organising our service. This starts with our recruitment process. We always check that a Care Worker will be available at the same time each day to ensure we can send the same Care Worker to the same customer. A familiar face allows for the all-important bond of trust to be developed and to ensure our Care Workers are familiar with their customers' needs, wants and preferences. From here, it is necessary for us to retain our Care Workers so that they can continue to visit their regular customers.

We do this by paying them a generous wage and investing in their training. We value our staff due to the quality service that they provide for our customers and we wish to reward them for this. If there are any changes due to unforeseen circumstances, we will always endeavour to let our customers know and to keep them informed and up-to-date as to who will be visiting them. We are always happy to be honest and realistic with our customers in terms of how many Care Workers may be delivering their care as we do not believe in making promises that we cannot keep. This all contributes to our delivering a service that is high in both quality and consistency. And that is what we mean at Bluebird Care when we talk about our "Good, old-fashioned service". Majorettes go patriotic

THE much-in-demand Lyme Regis Majorettes have celebrated their 30th anniversary by unveiling new patriotic uniforms.

The red, white and blue outfits, designed by trainer Olivia Miller, were seen for the first time when the troupe appeared at their 30th anniversary celebration at the Talbot Arms, Uplyme.

The troupe were introduced by town crier Alan Vian and got a warm welcome from supporters and former members who had gathered in the paddock next to the Talbot.

The red, white and blue colour scheme was chosen to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and London Olympics.

The new uniforms have cost the troupe £2,500 and will be seen in public for the first time during their appearance in Lifeboat Week on Saturday, July 21st on the Marine Parade at 3.30pm. The majorettes will then be performing all over the area every weekend until the end of September.

The 30th anniversary party included a hog roast and barbecue, rodeo bull and bouncy castle as well as a special birthday cake.

Chairman Emma Blackmore said: "It was lovely occasion and it was nice to welcome former members of the troupe. Everyone was very impressed with the new uniforms."

Council's £700 grant for Olympic Torch day

ESCALATING health and safety costs has resulted in Lyme Regis Town Council sanctioning expenditure of £700 to help meet expenses associated with the Olympic Torch Relay visiting the town on July 12th.

The town has already received a grant of £542 from West Dorset District Council to help offset the cost of welcoming the Olympic flame - but with thousands of people expected to visit the town for the once-in-a-lifetime event, further finance is required.

Just over £400 has been spent on welcoming banners but more money is needed for the purchase of high visibility tabards and the hire of additional two-way radios.

Based on the experience of other communities that have already hosted the relay, police and highway authorities have recommended increased resources to ensure the safety of all spectators.

Lyme is recruiting up to 175 marshalls to make sure the relay arrangements run smoothly.

Going for a record

CANCER Research UK volunteers in Lyme Regis are going all out this year to raise a record £10,000.

Since forming in 2007, the group has raised around £40,000 to help find a cure for cancer and are hoping to boost that to £50,000 by the end of the year.

With £2,000 already raised this year, the fundraising committee's next event will be a coffee morning and cake stall at the Baptist Church Hall on Saturday, July 14th (10 am to 12.30pm).

Any donation of cakes will be gratefully received. The committee will soon be announcing plans for a major fundraising event to be held on the Marine Parade on December 15th to help them achieve a record year.

Sitting Spiritually is sitting proud in Olympic Park garden

UPLYME-based garden furniture company, Sitting Spiritually, is delighted to announce that its award-winning Kyokusen Swing Seat is now in situ in the Olympic Park Gardens in time for the start of the 2012 Games.

In 2009, the Royal Horticultural Society launched the Great British Garden Competition to recruit two amateur garden designers, and to celebrate the nation's passion for gardening. The resulting new garden sits within the Olympic Park in Stratford, East London, offering great views over the Olympic Stadium.

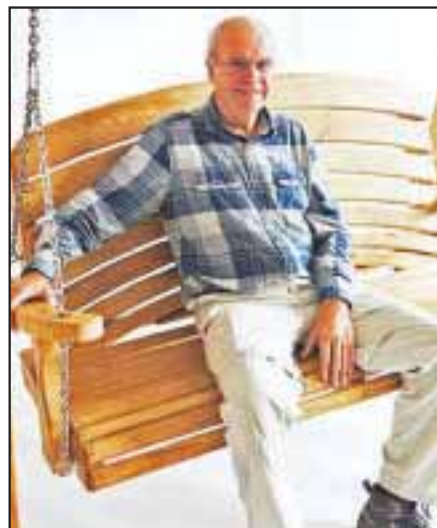

Out of 112 entries the winners were Rachel Read in the adult section and Hannah Clegg in the junior section. The two designers worked with the Olympic Delivery Authority Team to realise their designs for the garden.

And one of their requests was a personalised swing seat from Sitting Spiritually so that visitors could enjoy the garden and the views. The designers had previously tried out the handcrafted swing seats at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show.

Martin Young, eco-carpenter and founder of Sitting Spiritually, designed the seat - a three seat Kyokusen frame with curve back, complete with the inscription "Rachel & Hannah".

The Kyokusen (Japanese for "Curves in the Air") frame is Mr Young's signature, an award-winning design, handcrafted from FSC certified English oak, which is sourced locally, close to his workshop in Yawl.

The Kyokusen Swing Seat is available as a two, three or four seater, with a variety of seat back options. For something extra special, you can also include a personalised message or inscription, like Rachel and Hannah's seat. For more information visit www.sittingspiritually.co.uk

Crew say farewell to Mac

MEMBERS of Lyme Regis lifeboat crew paid their respects to former crew member John "Mac" Sewell on Sunday when his ashes were scattered at sea from the lifeboat.

As a service was held on the harbour wall the lifeboat crew scattered the ashes and fired a flare in memory of Mac who served a total of 43 years as a volunteer with the local RNLI.

Mac died aged 90 and the service was attended by his niece Susan Lynall.

B Sharp put Hub to good use with musical jamming sessions

LYME Regis-based youth music group, B Sharp, have been putting the new Hub youth club to use over the past two months with regular "jam sessions".

Every week, up to 30 young people have been using the club to compose and develop their skills in group music making. B Sharp and the Youth Service have been working closely during these sessions, offering band performances, drumming workshops and technology workshops.

Last week they opened the doors to family and friends to show off what they had been practicing over the past few weeks.

Music leader Pete Wild said: "It's been a great couple of months. All those who have come along have put their ideas into the mix. It's been very creative with the young people firmly at the centre of it all."

"We've worked with players and singers of all abilities and have covered many styles and genres to produce some great original music."

The group offers musical opportunities for young people aged 11 to 18 and up to aged 25 as a trainee. It has been a very busy time for B Sharp recently, with several projects reaching their completion.

For more information on all the group's work visit their website www.bsharp.uk.com

Take control of your heating!

No need to rely on expensive night storage, oil or LPG

Save up to 30% on your summer energy bills

- One radiator or a whole house fitted in just a day no mess, fuss or pipe-work required
- All quoted prices include delivery and installation

At South West Heating Solutions we know all radiators were not created equal! From our service to our product, we think our business stands out from the crowd. By sticking to our values & giving exceptional personal service & value for money, we have grown from a small family run operation to be one of the UK's largest installer of German storage radiators.

Our excellent service

As a local, family run company, we hold true to our belief that customer service is paramount. We look after our customers from their first free survey to the last installation & any aftercare you may need. We can even take care of organising with your energy supplier & offer free, independent advice on how to obtain the best tariffs. Our experienced engineers & electricians install our radiators with utmost precision, no mess & no fuss. There is a reason why half of our business is personal recommendation. Our products are guaranteed & maintenance free, so there is no need to worry about any extra costs in the future.

Our products

With over 2,000 successful installations, our delighted customers have transformed their properties by plugging into possibly the best & most technically advanced retro-fit heating system any where in the world. We believe the German radiator system has enormous benefits over the British night storage system, its technical superiority makes it easy to use & the automatic controls means it keeps you warm when its cold, saving you from paying for heating you don't need. Slimline & stylish, our radiators are available in extensive size ranges & over 200 different colours.

Why replace your old heating?

Old fashioned Night Storage, apart from using a large amount of energy, has little control. The rooms you want heated always seem to be cold at the very time of day when you need them to be warm, making you rely on expensive back up heating. Like gas, oil or lpg, our products are a primary heating system, but unlike these systems, using German 24hr storage radiators give you complete control over the temperature in each individual room. They are simple to install & we believe, more economical than oil, lpg or old fashioned night storage.

Woodbury Down not suitable for housing

■ WHEN you live in a small community there are often "ground hog" days.

In that respect, Lyme is no different from anywhere else. The whole premiss of the movie "Ground Hog Day" is that lessons are learned, knowledge is gained, ultimately you move forward to a positive conclusion. This is where Lyme deviates from the plot line - it's time for the Redevelopment Plan again!

Have lessons been learned from the last plan? It seems not. The conclusions and insight of Ms Jill Kingaby, the appointed government inspector of the plan, seem to have been completely ignored by West Dorset District Council. Here is a brief outline of the issues which I feel should be discussed.

Originally 60 homes and B1 industrial units were put forward by WDCC. This was in two fields at Woodbury Down (formerly St Albans). The inspector's opinion was that "60 dwellings would be too great - and the council reassess the capacity". This they did, and reduced the plan to one field and 30 homes. So why is it that WDDC are now putting in a plan for 90 homes and industrial units on three fields?

One of the major needs for housing in Lyme Regis is affordable homes for the locals. The land at Woodbury Down is far from ideal. It has green sand running through the whole site and streams and rain fall vent naturally onto the larger part of it. These naturally occurring obstacles, together with the gradient of the site, means that the expense of stabilising the land and the cost of excessive foundations makes affordable housing a pipe dream. It should also be noted that every tree on this site has a preservation order on it, not that this seems to worry some developers.

So why do WDDC keep putting this land forward? The council says: "There is no other site within the development boundary." But then again, neither was the total area of Woodbury Down in 2005. With this in mind, there is another site which I feel could be put forward and discussed by the town as a whole.

Option 2, the park and ride field adjacent to Strawberry Fields, has no obvious geological issues and an area of flat ground, ideal for affordable homes. The council argue that it is further from town, therefore not within walking distance. I live near the top of Charmouth Road, by Woodbury Down. As I work and have a school age family I do not have the luxury of time to walk to town and back. I'm sure there are many others like me, and both the 53 and 31 buses pass this field. Also, this site would not be seen from the western side of Lyme and Uplyme, unlike Woodbury Down.

Whether or not people agree about the use of this site, those of us who live and work in Lyme should at least have a chance to discuss this option. It is down to the people of Lyme Regis to shape its future, not WDDC, because we are the ones left with their decisions long after they have gone.

If you want a say go to the website <http://www.dorset-foryou.com/newlocalplan/west/weymouth>. This has an online comments form.

Council should support small businesses

■ I WAS confused about why Stan Williams is complaining about signs (View From Lyme Regis, June 20th) when I confronted him a few weeks ago putting up his signs on various lampposts in and around Lyme Regis promoting Woodmead Halls. His answer was "he was allowed in law to do this".

I take it from this that there is one rule for Stan Williams and the rest of us must be controlled and directed. As for the signs, it is important for any business to promote their business and signs help to direct the public, similarly to all traffic and event signs.

The country needs successful small businesses to succeed to promote growth and job security.

My experience of Lyme Regis has been for the council and past councillors to obstruct, penalise and create such negativity that small businesses become bewildered and lost by the lack of support. I would like to say that I feel that the intake of new councillors and certain others are showing understanding for small businesses. This is a welcoming and positive step of how a community should work together with support, understanding, education, and above all positive communication.

Signage needed to help traders

■ HOW many other councillors apart from Terry O'Grady believe we have too much signage in the town?

I need to know before I run for Terry's council slot because, as a local trader, I'm feeling very singled out.

In these tough times maybe we could have attractive advertising hoardings in place of all the pathetically aged 1980s council signage telling all the dog-owners and litterbugs off.

If it wasn't for me starting off the beautifully decorated bottom half of the Three Cups, then it really would be an eyesore.

What about Terry's adverts up top and on the side of his actually quite professionally painted listed buildings? Where are the rules prohibiting his excessive signage?

Come on Sir Terry, give us a break. In these times we need as much help as we can get.

Drinking ban in gardens won't work

■ I'D just like to say that being a youngster in Lyme Regis does not mean that you go and get drunk in the gardens (View From Lyme Regis, June 27th).

I am a 23 year old local girl. I have lived here my whole life and I don't understand what you think banning drinking in the gardens will achieve. They will just move to the beach, what then? Will you ban drinking on the beach too?

Also, does this mean that if a group of older adults, say 45-50, wanted a glass of wine in the park while watching Candles on the Cobb or the fireworks, would they be asked not to drink too?

You are never going to stop underage drinking. At least if you know it is happening in the gardens you know where to send the PCSOs to control it and keep an eye on it. The vandalism isn't always a result of drinking either. If they want to brake something they will do it while under the influence or not.

I think it would be nice to sit in the gardens with a group of friends and a glass of wine in the summer and I'm sure many others agree with me.

Amanda Rattenbury, Kingsway, Lyme Regis

Thanks for skatepark quiz

■ CAN I say thank you to everyone who took part in the quiz at the Nag's Head on June 13th?

The event raised £150 which will go towards the skatepark project. Also a big thank you to our hosts Rob and Debs and quizmaster Marion Bignall.

If you would like to get involved in fundraising for the skatepark please feel free to come along to our next meeting on July 16th in Room 1a at St Michael's Business centre at 7pm.

The Mill Café & Supper Club

SINCE Stefano arrived in Lyme Regis in April, it has hardly stopped raining and you'd think he would be sorely missing the warmer climes of his native Italy. Not a bit of it. Stefano has been too busy opening his café at the Town Mill to think about the weather. He was keen to set up an informal relationship with his neighbours at the Town Mill galleries and the door between them has been open from day one.

This philosophy extends to the cooking which is a relaxed combination of lunch time snacks, fabulous homemade cakes and informal Italian suppers. Stefano likes simple flavours where the ingredients – sourced locally whenever possible – can speak for themselves. An opening dish of grated new season radishes with top-quality olive oil and homemade bread served in the café this week was typical. 'Food should taste of what it is,' says Stefano who has cooked in London and in Milan. 'In a way there is no such thing as Italian food as it is so regional. My cooking is inspired by the food of Emilia Romagna, Piedmont, Venice. But the one thing they all have in common is that in Italy eating is about family, sharing good times, laughter. We get all that in the supper evenings.'

Stefano has written two cookery books – one of them called English Puddings. 'I try to sneak English puddings into my Italian suppers,' he says. 'I just can't help myself. They're so good.'

Tony has a strong passion for cooking seasonal, fresh, local produce and creating innovative menus that excite the palate. He enjoys being inventive with new and different produce that some people might not have tried before, and describes his cooking style as 'clean, vibrant and full of flavour'. Tony says 'I love being able to create dishes from produce that I have on the doorstep. I am particularly privileged to be able to take fresh fish straight out of Lyme Bay and have on the plate within a few hours. Mostly I keep the accompaniments and garnishes with the local seafood as clean and simple as possible to accentuate the texture and flavour of the freshest fish available.'

His signature dish at the moment is 'Pan Fried Lyme Bay Scallops with cider braised pork belly, thyme roasted butternut squash puree and crispy pancetta'. Of course using all locally sourced ingredients!

When not at the Restaurant, Tony enjoys shooting and fishing, and also in his spare time trains gun dogs - Springer Spaniels.

Honiton Garden Centre

THE Honiton Garden Centre will be officially opened at a Champagne Reception on the evening of June 29th by Councillor Graham Godbeer, EDDC Portfolio holder for the Economy. Their aim was to bring a traditional and high class Garden Centre to Honiton and as of June 29th 2012, following substantial investment, the business will be formally opened as The Honiton Garden Centre.

Whether you are a green-fingered expert or gardening beginner, we have everything you need, including garden tools, fertilizers, lawn care, propagation aids and seeds to grow your own.'

Logical Energy

Solar Energy in a Discreet Package

DESPITE the promise of reduced electricity bills and a generous quarterly pay-out from the Government backed FITs, solar panels fall short for some on the most basic of issues – looks.

If this describes you, or your partners' feelings towards solar energy, you may be interested in a new breed of solar panel from Axminster based Logical Energy in the form of CIS Thin Film.

Tried and tested throughout the world, as well as in climates close to our own, this elegant 'all-black' panel blends effortlessly with most roofing materials, and can be integrated into the roof structure itself – as shown here.

If looks matter when it comes to your home, CIS thin film certainly doesn't mean compromising pleasing aesthetics over substance. Far from it, the panel reaches its peak far quicker than its traditional counterpart and promises up to a 14% higher electricity generation. The result is a superior return on investment and faster payback.

You may be one of those homeowners, farmers or businesses where the positioning of your roof, shading issues or even cost rendered your good intentions prohibitive or even out of the question. If so, you may want to look again. CIS thin film is more robust, offering greater flexibility in terms of roof orientation and shading. In terms of cost, you will be pleasantly surprised to find a quote today is far lower due to panel prices responding to market fluctuation.

With just a matter of weeks to go until the Olympic Opening Celebrations, Dorset continues to mix it up...

Creative workshops, fun art installations and spectacular music concerts throughout last month Maritime Mix is hotting up!

Hundreds of Coastal Voices come together for a unique concert on 8th July

LED by Lighthouse, Poole's Centre for the Arts and inspired by London 2012 and the Cultural Olympiad, Coastal Voices is a landmark project that has brought hundreds of voices together for performances across Dorset and Devon. The singers from four vocal 'hubs' set-up in Poole, Weymouth, West Dorset and East Devon will be performing collectively for the very first time with a special concert at Lighthouse on July 8th, prior to performances at BT River of Music in London in July, featuring a small selected choir of 50 young singers from Poole on the Oceania stage, as well as in Weymouth for the 2012 Olympic opening ceremony. To book tickets visit www.lighthousepoole.co.uk or call 0844 406 8666 if you miss this concert you can experience Coastal Voices on Weymouth Beach 2pm on Friday 27th July

Moving Tides Procession, 12th July

WELCOME the arrival of the Olympic Torch and celebrate with a spectacular show on Weymouth Beach until 9pm. This fantastic, inventive, joyous carnival procession is made and presented by children and young people from Weymouth and Portland. It should create the perfect carnival atmosphere for this historic occasion. As 2012 is a special year and we have international visitors for the sailing events, this year's theme is also 'Oceans of the World'. You'll delight in aqueous angelfish, marvel at Jurassic creatures, dance with yellow seagulls, sway to the beat of the drum and chuckle at costumes based on crabs and squids.

ExLab - fusing contemporary art with earth science in unexpected places - 12th July onwards

THE ExLab project launches across Dorset this summer, 12th July - 9th September.

Since October 2011 artists and scientists have been collaborating on this unique project. The outcome will be a fascinating series of contemporary artworks at various locations in Dorset, all of which respond to the Jurassic Coast in some way, adding a further dimension to public understanding of the coastline. Commissioned by visual arts collective Big Picture, the works evoke intrigue and wonder about this extraordinary coastline, the only natural World Heritage Site in the UK. 5 new commissions, 3 artist bursaries, numerous scientists and 7 arts organisations add up to a highly original and un-missable experience. Come and join them on 12th July at The Gallery in Arts University College Bournemouth to view previous works and engage in discussions with all five commissioned artists prior to the main launch in July. For more information visit www.exlab.org.uk

Eggardon Hill comes alive with Landance in 2012, 14th - 15th July

Punk legends in Bridport

THE U.K.Subs are unique amongst the original wave of punk bands that emerged circa 1976/77 in that they have continued to gig every year ever since, clocking up thousands of shows. They maintain and pioneer the true spirit of punk rock, without the compromise and watering-down that has affected so many of their contemporaries.

Led by the now legendary Charlie Harper, this incredible front man continues to amaze with his indefatigable lust for life, music and the live circuit.

With the band continuing to blaze their unique trail all over the world into their fifth decade, 2011 saw the band release their critically acclaimed 'W' album, WORK IN PROGRESS, as they near their quest to be the first band to release their official albums alphabetically A to Z.

The band's early success of seven consecutive UK Top 40 hits between 1979-81 was testament to their popularity amongst the punk scene then, and with there never having been any division of fan and band, their continued popularity ensured listeners of Steve Lamacz's BBC 6music show voted them 'Punk World Cup winners 2010'.

Watch the UK Subs live at the Electric Palace on Friday 13th July. Tickets are on sale now for £10 from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901 / £12 on door. For more details see www.electricpalace.org.uk

Miracle Theatre: The Importance of Being Earnest

LOOKING for a great night out for all the family? Then pack a picnic and enjoy a hilarious evening of open-air theatre with Miracle Theatre in Dorchester's Maumbury Rings on Saturday, July 14th at 7.30pm. Cornwall's Miracle Theatre's productions are one of the highlights of the summer! This time they are back with a wonderful new interpretation of Oscar Wilde's classic comedy - The Importance of Being Earnest.

Set in the year 1912, with the Titanic sinking, mass production just beginning on the Morris Oxford and the Turkey Trot causing outrage across the dance floors of polite society, this tale of the strange contents of a handbag found at Victoria station has been subtly adapted to extract every drip of humour and contemporary relevance.

This 'trivial comedy for serious people' is a masterpiece of sharp wit and preposterous plotting. In this high energy production Miracle adds an extra dimension to 'the funniest play ever written'.

Bring a picnic and enjoy great open-air theatre. Hot chocolate, teas and cakes from 6.30pm.

Tickets are £11 / £30 family / £6 under 18s and concessions from Tourist Information Centre 01305 267992 or Dorchester Arts 01305 266926. For more information visit: www.miracletheatre.co.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

HE WAS born in an Irish workhouse in 1881 and died in Connecticut in 1972, aged 90. Padraic Colum was a dramatist, novelist, poet and biographer. He was also a co-founder of the Abbey Theatre in Dublin and a friend of James Joyce. His first book of verse came out in 1907 and included this poem.

AN OLD WOMAN OF THE ROADS

O, to have a little house!
To own the hearth and stool and all!
The heaped up sods upon the fire,
The pile of turf against the wall!

To have a clock with weights and chains
And pendulum swinging up and down!
A dresser filled with shining delph,
Speckled and white and blue and brown!

I could be busy all the day
Clearing and sweeping hearth and floor,
And fixing on their shelf again
My white and blue and speckled store!

I could be quiet there at night
Beside the fire and by myself,
Sure of a bed and loth to leave
The ticking clock and the shining delph!

Och! but I'm weary of mist and dark,
And roads where there's never a house nor bush,
And tired I am of bog and road,
And the crying wind and the lonesome hush!

And I am praying to God on high,
And I am praying Him night and day,
For a little house—a house of my own—
Out of the wind's and the rain's way.

In 1909 James Joyce praised this next verse of Colum's with the comment, "I couldn't have written that."

ACROSS THE DOOR

The fiddles were playing and playing,
The couples were out on the floor;
From converse and dancing he drew me,
And across the door.

Ah! strange were the dim, wide meadows,
And strange was the cloud-strewn sky,
And strange in the meadows the corncrakes,
And they making cry!

The hawthorn bloom was by us,
Around us the breath of the south —
White hawthorn, strange in the night-time —
His kiss on my mouth!

Let's finish with a bit of whimsy from Wendy Cope. I recognise myself in this verse. I don't like to be bored but I don't mind being boring.

BEING BORING

If you ask me 'What's new?', I have nothing to say
Except that the garden is growing.
I had a slight cold but it's better today.

I'm content with the way things are going.
Yes, he is the same as usually is,
Still eating and sleeping and snoring.
I get on with my work. He gets on with his.
I know this is all very boring.

There was drama enough in my turbulent past:
Tears and passion — I've used up a tankful.
No news is good news, and long may it last.
If nothing much happens, I'm thankful.
A happier cabbage you never did see,
My vegetable spirits are soaring.
If you're after excitement, steer well clear of me.
I want to go on being boring.

I don't go to parties. Well, what are they for,
If you don't need to find a new lover?
You drink and you listen and drink a bit more
And you take the next day to recover.
Someone to stay home with was all my desire
And, now that I've found a safe mooring,
I've just one ambition in life: I aspire
To go on and on being boring.

GREAT MUSIC ON SUNDAY AFTERNOONS IN LYME REGIS PARISH CHURCH

STARTING next, Sunday, July 8th, there will be a series of weekly Sunday Afternoon Concerts at 3.30pm in the parish church of St Michael the Archangel, Lyme Regis. As an added bonus, audiences will be able to enjoy cream tea next door in the Parish Hall either before or after the concerts. These free events have been arranged by the Lyme Regis Organ School, and retiring collections will support the School and also the Lyme Regis Organ Appeal.

Several of the concerts will feature the magnificent new organ in Lyme Regis, but there will also be many other types of music. Pianists, singers and instrumentalists will take part at various times, and one concert will be devoted to classical North Indian music played on sitar and tabla (July 29th). At some concerts local musicians will be playing, including Alex and Alison Davies (July 15th), Nick Brown (August 5th) and Sarah and Linda Nicholson (August 26th). Young (and not so young) pupils of the Lyme Regis Organ School will be playing on August 12th

The inaugural concert next Sunday July 8th will be given by one of Britain's top organists, Anthony Gritten. Professor Gritten is head of undergraduate programmes at the Royal Academy of Music, and an international recitalist. He is especially devoted to French music and will be helping Daniel Roth, the celebrated organist of St Sulpice, Paris, to celebrate his 70th birthday at a concert later this year in that wonderful church. His programme in Lyme Regis will be wide-ranging, from early music by Couperin and Bach to contemporary composers. It is guaranteed to be a terrific demonstration of the Skrabl organ. We hope that many local people will be there and also visitors who might like a short respite from sun, rain, sand and all the other delights of a summer seaside holiday.

Tinderbox join Stompin' Dave for Sublime Folk

TWO of Dorset's most popular musical acts Tinderbox and Stompin' Dave Allen team up to present a "sublime acoustic concert" at Bridport Art Centre on Wednesday, July 18th.

Original acoustic folk duo Tinerbox feature the "honey-like" vocals of Dublin native Monique Houraghan, and the intricate finger style guitar of Dan Tucker. The Bournemouth based duo were awarded Best European Revelation Group 2010 by Premios Pop-Eye Gala Awards, in Spain, then followed a successful US tour. Their fourth studio album "Counting Time" was released in March this year. Many of the tracks have already enjoyed widespread radio-play and the reviews have been stunning. R2 Magazine branded the album "Outstanding". BBC's Roger Day described the work as "Beautiful" and revered singer-songwriter Johnny Coppin, on his BBC radio show, branded the songs "Fantastic". Tinderbox have a busy summer ahead with numerous festivals and concerts, as well as some great supports for legendary artists including Joan Armatrading and Eleanor McEvoy.

Also appearing solo and in collaboration with Tinderbox is local favourite Stompin' Dave Allen. Dave also has a very busy schedule this summer with festival appearances scheduled at Priddy Folk Festival, The Secret Garden Festival, Warwick Folk Festival, The Great Dorset Steam Fair, Didmarton Bluegrass Festival and Bath Folk Festival among others. Dave said "I'm really looking forward to performing at Bridport Art Centre to support Tinderbox one of my favourite original acoustic duos. Tinderbox performed short spots at some of The Sublime Folk concerts I have organised the last few years and have always impressed. It's a great chance for music fans in west Dorset to hear them take centre stage and play a full set. They are fantastic songwriters and performers. Every time I've seen Tinderbox live I have enjoyed them more. If you love to hear beautiful, superbly crafted songs, then this concert is for you."

Chris Corcoran set to Rock Bridport Arts Centre

THE Chris Corcoran Trio play an exciting and eclectic mix of instrumental music covering Blues, Jazz, Latin, Funk and Rock'n'Roll styles. The trio all cut their teeth and earned reputations on the London Blues scene and are now considered top players in their field. Instrumental dynamite, and very danceable!

The trio have appeared at the International Guitar Festival of Great Britain, and Bridport Arts Centre are delighted that Chris could fit in an appearance en route to the UK Boogie Woogie Festival where he'll be providing the house band for major European acts.

Chris Corcoran is one of the most sought after guitarists on the UK blues and music scene. He has played with many great performers, notably West Weston's Bluesonics, Si Cranstoun, Big John Carter and Jackson Sloan (with Ray Gelato). His trio released its debut CD 'The Getaway' in 2011. Recorded in one session, with a few additional overdubs, the CD has a unique vibe and style Pipeline Magazine's review of the album said 'there's much to delight the guitar purist here'.

Chris's unique tone and style come from years of performing with his beaten up old Broadway guitar equipped with extra thick flatwound strings that make most other guitar players weep. The sound and feel of his playing also lends itself to film and TV soundtracks; he has composed the theme to a cartoon show currently in development, plus recorded at the National Film and TV School.

In his trio Chris is ably accompanied by Jamie Lawrence on bass and Rob Pokorny on drums.

Jamie Lawrence is one of the busiest upright bass players in the country. After learning the ropes from his Dad (also a bass player who recorded with Dusty Springfield) Jamie's name is usually on the band list for most of the London Blues scene's most exciting bands. He also works with the very funky Jetricks who are signed to Legere Records and has made a number of TV appearances, most recently in the BBC drama 'Call The Midwife'.

Rob Pokorny is one of London's up and coming stars. His unique feel and style of drumming has ensured he is one of the busiest and most called upon drummers of his generation. 2011 saw Rob nominated in the British Blues Awards Best Drummer category.

Chris Corcoran Trio play on Friday, July 6th at 8pm at Bridport Arts Centre, South Street, Bridport, DT6 3NR. Tickets £10/£9 members/£7 concs and are available from theBox Office - 01308 424204

BIG BOY BLOATER IN BRIDPORT

IF THE less than summery weather has been getting you down come then get along to the Electric Palace on Friday, July 20th where Big Boy Bloater will bring you brand new sounds from his own songbook, a stunning mix of swamp soul, dark blues and twang.

Last year saw the acclaimed guitarist, singer and songwriter Big Boy Bloater launch his solo career with an album full of catchy and clever self-penned material and some impressive showcase gigs as well as guesting on Jools Holland's BBC Radio 2 show, and now this is your chance to see him, live and in full voice.

Fronting his own bands from a young age Bloater quickly became a stalwart of the retro R&B and Blues scenes bringing him to the attention of many, including Mark Lamarr who put his own money behind a limited-edition vinyl release of one of Bloater's tracks in 2008 (giving away 100 copies on the 100th edition of his award winning BBC Radio 2 show 'Shake Rattle and Roll').

Being a consummate professional, delivering hard-hitting vocals, having enviable guitar skills and the ability to write very catchy songs with clever lyrics as well as the talent to mesmerise an audience are what has brought Big Boy Bloater to where he is today. But he wants to take it further. "I'm old enough and ugly enough to know my trade well, I love what I do and I hope that shows on stage. I am very excited to have the chance now to break through and show the world what I can really do"

The album 'Big Boy Bloater and the Limits' released in March 2011, features special guest appearances from Imelda May and jazz-funk legend Snowboy and has attracted much critical acclaim. The self-penned numbers show not only great musicianship but a maturity in style. With fans like Jools Holland, Imelda May and Mark Lamarr already singing his praises you know that Big Boy Bloater's star is on the ascent.

Don't miss this opportunity to see him live at the Electric Palace on Friday, July 20th. Doors open at 7.30pm, tickets are £10.00 in advance, £12.50 on the door and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901 or online at www.seetickets.com. Please note that tickets may be subject to a booking fee.

Added sax appeal for album launch

Morris men, Mosquitos, and headmasters join Mary Land's Pure Dirt Band for special evening of music

WOODROFFE students are in for an end-of-term double treat in Lyme Regis on Saturday, July 14th when their headmaster Dr Richard Steward steps out of his study to add sax appeal as the school's 'IT fairy godmother' gets onstage to do her night job.

The award-winning Head, under whose stewardship the school has become one of the West Country's finest, will be letting his hair down at the Woodmead Halls when he joins the country rock band of Woodroffe's popular computer-fixer, staff member Mary Ball.

For one night only, Dr Steward will be playing saxophone in Mary's Pure Dirt Band at the launch party for her album 'All The Way'.

Mary, who performs under the stage name Mary Land, will be swapping her IT lab technician's coat for cowboys boots and a Stetson as she and her Lyme-based band perform the album which has already been hailed as a YouTube hit with fans from the USA.

"I'm thrilled to be playing a gig with the Head," said Mary, "He's a great musician and I hope lots of Woodroffe students will come and see this other side of him - and learn what I do in my night job"

Pure Dirt Band guitarist Gordon 'Nomad' Smith, who produced the 7-track album which is winning rave comparisons with Fleetwood Mac, added: "I've been in and around the music business for all of my life and I'd say Richard Steward is one of the best saxophonists in the South West. He's a really good player and the audience can look forward to a treat."

The Pure Dirt Band are all from the West Dorset/East Devon area: Mary Ball, Nomad Smith and drummer John Hallett are from Lyme Regis, bass guitarist Ade Taylor is from Axminster and lead guitarist Phil Birkhead is from Colyford.

The album launch party, which starts at 7.30 pm, is also attracting the 'big guns' of Lyme, with at least three former mayors of the town attending - plus the current Mayor, Sally Holman, in full regalia.

Among the highlights of the show will be the Uplyme Morris Men ditching their traditional accordion and fiddle accompaniment to dance to the electric guitar of sound one of the upbeat album's tracks.

Another reason for the excitement over Mary's album is that the single - the title track All The Way - has been officially named Lyme's Song Of Summer 2012 by Lyme Regis Radio, which will be broadcasting the launch show live on the Net.

The very catchy single's pre-release promo on YouTube has won a wave of praise from YouTubers all over the world, especially in Country-loving USA.

"It's Lyme's 21st Century answer to the West Coast Sound," said New York musician Bill Bernstein.

"I'd give it No.1 for the song and the band," wrote Colorado resident Christopher Makris.

"This song is brilliant, awesome and inspiring, I just love it," wrote Washington State teacher Delia Warren.

"It's excellent, very Fleetwood Mac," said Californian artist Caroline Ryall.

Locally, the video has had more than 600 hits on YouTube and praise galore.

"It's one of the best songs I've ever heard from a Devon and Dorset band," said Andy Cable, the veteran musician and owner of Axminster's Axe Music shop.

The July 14th concert is being held on Bastille Day as a nod of thanks to top French Canadian band Mosquito B, who are diverting from their European tour itinerary in order to make the date with Mary at the Woodmead Halls.

"Mosquito B met Mary some years ago and they are big fans of her music," said a spokesman for the Quebec-based band, "They are making a special trip to Lyme Regis just to perform at her show."

To cement Lyme's inter-continental link on the night, the entire concert will be simulcast live to an English theme pub in Quebec which is the local of Mosquito B lead singer Dan Louis Moisan.

The Pure Dirt Band's Mr Smith added: "The launch party is set to be one of the best night's of Lyme's already-busy summer. I shouldn't be surprised if everybody gets up on stage for a finale with Mary and the band - Mosquitoes, morrismen, mayors and masters!"

This week's big screen releases

THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN ^{12A}
LIKE most teenagers, Peter Parker (Andrew Garfield) is trying to figure out who he is and how he got to be the person he is today. Peter is also finding his way with his first high school crush, Gwen Stacy (Emma Stone), and together, they struggle with love, commitment, and secrets. As Peter discovers a mysterious briefcase that belonged to his father, he begins a quest to understand his parents' disappearance - leading him directly to Oscorp and the lab of Dr Curt Connors (Rhys Ifans), his father's former partner. As Spider-Man is set on a collision course with Connors' alter-ego, The Lizard, Peter will make life-altering choices to use his powers and shape his destiny to become a hero. Also stars Denis Leary, Martin Sheen and Sally Field.

GOD BLESS AMERICA ¹⁵
LOVELESS, jobless, possibly terminally ill, Frank (Joel Murray) has had enough of the downward spiral of America. With nothing left to lose, Frank takes his gun and offs the stupidest, cruelest, and most repellent members of society. He finds an unusual accomplice: 16-year-old Roxy (Tara Lynne Barr), who shares his sense of rage and disenfranchisement. Crime comedy also starring Mackenzie Brooke Smith, Rich McDonald and Melinda Page Hamilton.

THE HUNTER ¹⁵
MARTIN David (Willem Dafoe), a mercenary, is sent from Europe by a mysterious biotech company to the Tasmanian wilderness on a hunt for the last Tasmanian tiger. Adventure flick also starring Sam Neill, Frances O'Connor and Sullivan Stapleton.

TOTAL RECALL ¹⁸ : Re-release 1990
DOUGLAS Quaid (Arnold Schwarzenegger) is haunted by a recurring dream about a journey to Mars. He hopes to find out more about this dream and buys a holiday at Rekall Inc. where they sell implanted memories. But something goes wrong with the memory implantation and he remembers being a secret agent fighting against the evil Mars administrator Cohagen (Ronny Cox). Now the story really begins and it's a rollercoaster ride until the massive end of the movie. Also stars Rachel Ticotin, Sharon Stone and Michael Ironside.

House sales "a reverse pyramid" says housing spokesman

AS a member of the National Association of Estate Agents, Gordon & Rumsby are kept up-to-date with regular industry newsletters and forums. Changes in legislation affecting the housing market are reported immediately and the NAEA run monthly surveys amongst members to keep track on the ever-changing housing market. Richard Copus is the West Country Regional Executive for the National Association of Estate Agents and recently published the following editorial. This sums up the trend that we are seeing at Gordon & Rumsby this year and so decided to share this piece with readers. I hope you find it interesting.

Julie Gordon

Richard Copus, West Country Regional, says that the housing market has turned into a 'reverse pyramid' which is the main factor influencing slow house sales.

"The normal housing market, which we have known for decades, revolves around young, first time buyers stepping onto the housing ladder for the first time and moving up that ladder as years progress. First time buyers have traditionally formed the bedrock of the market. That situation now is totally reversed.

With first timers like needles in haystacks and an increasingly ageing population, the pyramid has been reversed. We are now seeing the general trend in house sales as top downwards rather than bottom up. Indeed, it can be said that the market really has gone 'bottom up'! This puts pressure on the top end of the market and on house values."

Richard emphasises that this is not a life-changing situation, but it needs a rethink from estate agents and house sellers on how they should value and market their homes.

"The reassuring trend over the last 3 years is that house prices have remained relatively stable with only small ups and downs. The problem at the moment is lack of buyers. Government statistics indicate that residential housing transactions are down 60% from their recent peak in 2007. Down here in the West Country it is more like a half full pint pot.

The pot is half full, rather than half empty, because there is still a slow but steady influx of people relocating from our increasingly congested metropolitan areas and many older people retire down here. Generally speaking, they are selling considerably higher value properties and are prepared to pay for a better lifestyle and environment. What we don't have are thirty-something's on increased incomes itching to buy larger houses and twenty-something's with mortgages filling the gap."

"The result of these trends means that property values are unlikely to decrease substantially over the next few years, but they are unlikely to go up either. It would only need a small increase in first time buyer lending or employment confidence amongst young families to fuel housing demand, but neither of these is likely to happen in the foreseeable future. So it continues to be important not to overvalue houses when they are put up for sale."

"Put your house on the market at more than a few per cent above market value and you are likely to end up selling it for less than you otherwise would. How is this? The buyers are out there but they are very money conscious. Many of them are living in rented accommodation where they have been for 6 months or even 2 years. Looking for specific houses in specific price ranges and locations, they know values to the tee. If they see something they like the look of they won't mess about. It is surprising how many properties sell at or within 1 per cent of their asking prices. What they won't do is waste time looking at overvalued homes and there are a lot out there. The result is that overvalued houses don't get viewers, go stale, and end up selling at depressed prices when the owners eventually decide that they have had enough."

Citroen redefines option list for distinctive DS5

- No-cost option 17-inch alloy wheels announced for DS5 DStyle & DSport Hybrid4 models
- New wheel size reduces CO2 emissions from 107g/km to 99g/km & BiK from 12% to 10
- Two new Sport Signature packs available on HDi 160 & THP 200 DStyle & DSport models

CITROËN has announced the availability of a number of new options on selected DS5 models from 2 July, 2012.

New Citroën DS5 is the brand's first production model to feature Hybrid4 full diesel hybrid technology. From July, stylish 17-inch 'Houston' alloy wheels are available as a no-cost option on Hybrid4 DStyle and DSport versions. These smaller diameter alloy wheels reduce the cars' CO2 emissions from 107g/km to 99g/km - the same as the entry-level DSign Hybrid4 model. At 99g/km both models are exempt from the London congestion charge and the BiK tax rate reduces from 12 to just 10%.

Citroën has also confirmed two new Signature packs for DS5 HDi 160 DStyle & DSport models. The Sport Signature and Dark Sport Signature packs are priced at £650 and bring lowered suspension (by 7mm), black door mirrors and grey or black 19-inch 'Cairns' alloy wheels for the Sport Signature and Dark Sport Signature respectively.

On all DS5 THP 200 versions, the striking Dark Sport Signature is now specified as standard - at no extra cost - with the Sport Signature pack available as an alternative no-cost option.

Completing the July changes, New DS5's e-HDi 110 Airdream EGS6 powertrain has been renamed e-HDi 115 Airdream EGS6 to reflect a slight increase in power from 111hp to 114hp. The drivetrain's performance figures, fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are unaffected.

Their labour rate may cost you less,
but you could end up paying for it.

It's time to see through independent garages.

When it comes to servicing and repairing your Mercedes-Benz at an independent garage, can you be sure you're not paying more than you need to?

At Mercedes-Benz of Dorchester's Official Workshop, we'll tell you the price of any work that's needed and how long it'll take before we begin, so you'll know exactly where you stand.

Furthermore, all our Genuine Parts come with a comprehensive two-year guarantee and include the labour cost of fitting them, meaning that when you drive away, you'll feel reassured that if something goes wrong, we'll be on hand to help. That's why it pays to see the experts.

And at the moment, this is especially true. If you present the voucher below when bringing your car in to us, we'll give you £50 off the labour cost for any servicing or repair work we carry out.

To find out more, contact us today on 01305 264 494.

*Average based on customer service feedback from Service Events held at this Mercedes-Benz Official Workshop between 1 January 2010 and 31 December 2010.

Russian threat to Blake's golden chances

DESPITE beating his own world record in the 800m, Dorchester's Paul Blake was beaten into third place in last week's IPC Athletics European Championships at Stadskanaal in Holland.

Although trimming 1.21secs off his world record of 2:08:02, the 22-year-old from Charlton Down was beaten into bronze position by a new Russian athlete Evgenii Shvetcov who won in 2:05:03, and old rival Artem Arefyev who clocked 2:06:19.

The 24-year-old Soviet making his first appearance on the international scene, also denied Blake gold in the 400m, beating the fastest time in the world this year set by Blake only two weeks ago, with Arefyev third.

However Blake is in no way disheartened by the results and believes it will only spur him on to better things.

Speaking exclusively with View Sport he said: "It was a really good championship's. Shetchov was new to me; I have never heard of him before; but I am not fazed by him, it only makes me want to try harder."

Despite being beaten by the two Russians in the 800m, Blake is in good spirits. He is pleased with the way he is running; lengthening his stride and achieving a level of relaxation that he wasn't able to find previously.

"Arefyev is great competition, and he is still very much in the picture, but Shvetcov means more competition and that spurs me on. I couldn't have done anymore that I did last week, and was beaten by someone who was better on the day.

"However I won't be changing my training in any way, I will keep doing what I am doing and hopefully get quicker. I believe there is more in me, and I will continue to work hard, and hopefully stay injury free."

He feels now that he can go faster and just needs to concentrate on leg strength. "The Russians are much taller and stronger than me. I think that's what made the difference in the final 60m.

"There is work to do but I've got eight weeks and I'm really looking forward to it. The races are becoming really exciting now that there are three of us within touching distance of each other."

Blake's next competition is the McCain Birmingham Games on 8th July when he will be running the 400m and 800m, with Blake having already met the Team GB standard times, expecting to officially be named in the Team GB Paralympic team the following day.

Branscombe Bullhuss earns Bagwell top spot

On Saturday 30th June, 14 members of Lyme Regis Sea Angling Club fished the 'Heaviest Fish' competition.

With the unsettled weather conditions we have been having recently, it was decided to make this match a rover, with the boundaries being Sidmouth to Preston Beach, Weymouth.

The main target for anglers seemed to be Bullhuss. Most anglers fished Lyme Regis, but a move to Branscombe proved to be a good choice for Jake Bagwell, who took 1st place with a Bullhuss of 1444g. This now puts him top of the Saturday league.

Darren Herbert took 2nd place with another Bullhuss from Lyme Regis and 3rd place went to Peter Yates with a Dogfish from Seatown.

A lot of Bullhuss were caught, but the majority needed immediate release as they were undersize.

The next Saturday league match is on 7th July and is for Most number of species, from Lyme Regis (no mini species).

Top five anglers in the Saturday league: 1st Jake Bagwell 16pts, 2nd Darren Herbert 15pts, 3rd Ben Male 9pts, 4th Jaydan Male 9pts, 5th Peter Williams 9pts.

Pre-season football

Senior pleased

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior was pleased with the number of players that attended the club's first pre-season training session last week WRITES STUART BROOM.

Twenty-eight turned up on the Tuesday night, but with the third team not due back until this week, he was satisfied, particularly as it included a couple of new faces.

Portland United's Alex Halloran attended as planned, although Lewis Whyton, who suggested he would also attend was absent.

"Alex is still not certain what he wants to do, but came along as he agreed to check us out, but did not attend the Thursday session because of work commitments. I have not heard from Lewis, so I am not sure the situation with him."

Another new face was Simon Baines from Blandford who has just returned to the country after several years in South Africa.

The 31-year-old defender played for Dorchester Town under manager Mark Morris 10 years ago and is looking to get back into English football. He attended with 'keeper Sam Filkins and his brother, a centre-forward, who lives in Blandford.

Senior said: "Alex is taking a look at us, and he would certainly be a good acquisition. Simon would also be a great signing; his experience and talking on the pitch would be a huge asset, but it may be difficult as he has already attracted interest from both Wimborne Town and Poole Town."

Narrow defeat for Lyme's Sophie

LYME REGIS Golf Club member Sophie Keech narrowly failed in her attempt to retain The England Schools National Championships in warm sunshine at Kendleshire on the 25th June.

Sophie played a solid first round in the morning finishing -2 and one off the lead, getting birdies on the 9th and 18th, two very difficult holes.

After a short lunch break she kept up the momentum with a birdie on the first hole in round two that she ended -1, making her -3 for the 36 holes and leader in the clubhouse.

Dulcie Sverdlhoff carded a strong second round card to also end up -3 overall, and pipped Sophie to the title winning on count back.

Sophie has been selected to play in two England School Matches - Wales v England in August at Penard Golf Club Swansea and England v Scotland in September at Hesketh Golf Club in Lancashire.

POOLE TOWN 153 ALL OUT BEAT

DORCHESTER 138 ALL OUT BY 15 RUNS

DORCHESTER, after dismissing reigning champions Poole Town for just 153, must have felt they had a great chance of being the first side this season to win at Poole Park.

However Steve Wilson ripped out Dorchester's top three batsmen, and although there was a wonderful innings from 13-year-old debutant Will Caldwell who scored 40 before being run out, the county town failed by 15 runs.

Steve Wilson (23) and Badrul Alam (20) gave Poole a good start with an opening stand of 54, but this soon became 81-5 as Pete Moxom (4-21) ripped through their top order.

Although captain Kristian Wilson (20) and Dave Miller (19 not out) added valuable runs, they couldn't stop Caldwell (3-35) bagging his first senior wickets as Poole were dismissed for just 153 all out.

However the wicket proved just as useful to Poole's opening bowler Mitch Wilson (4-28) who demolished Dorchester's batting to leave them in trouble at 69-6 with only captain Dan Belt (17) and Sam Goodhew (10) getting into double figures.

However Caldwell was joined by Marcus Evans (23) and they put together a stand of 46 for the seventh wicket before Evans was out and James Dunham (2) followed shortly after.

With overs running out Dorchester took chances and both Caldwell (40) and Joe Power (1) were run out looking for those vital runs to leave the county town 15 runs short.

With unavailabilities, Dorchester fielded six under 19's. Dan Belt, deputising as captain in the absence of Martyn Richards said: "It was a very close game and a great effort from everyone, especially the youngsters.

"I was happy with how we played and with a little more experience in our batting we would have probably got there.

"What the unavailability has have done, is given some of the younger players a chance and they are stepping up to the challenge."

STALBRIDGE 231-9 LOST TO

WEYMOUTH 232-8 BY TWO WICKETS

WEYMOUTH made it three wins if four with an excellent win at Stalbridge. Set 232 to win they managed it with eight balls to spare and are now sixth, just one point behind Dorchester.

Skipper Dean Janaway put their hosts in but after an early success Rob Burfitt (38) and Chris Hedges (38) took the score to 71 before Simon Browne (4-39) struck, and in no time Stalbridge were rocking at 114-6.

However Andy Dike turned things around with a hard hitting 72 and with support from the tail end they mustered 231-9, despite some excellent bowling in the closing stages by Tom Guyett (2-55) to keep the score down.

Experienced campaigner Steve Forshaw (3-27) struck an early blow for the hosts trapping Haydn White (1), but Paul Payne (32) and Janaway (43) put on 59 before losing Janaway and Keiron Womble for a duck in quick succession.

This brought Tom England to the wicket and although he played exceptionally well for his 66, he lost partners, and defeat looked on the cards when he was joined by Browne (24) at 132-4, a hundred short of their target.

However they restored the situation before Laurie Whyte (19 not out) that included two big sixes, and Dave Trotter (9 not out) saw them home.

Division Two

DORCHESTER 2ND 99-6 BEAT POOLE TOWN

2ND 98 ALL OUT BY FOUR WICKETS

DORCHESTER 2nds lost the toss and were asked to field, but soon made inroads into the bottom club's batting through Pete Horne (2-17) with the score on 13, before Pete Phillips (4-27) had the other opener caught by James Caldwell in the next over.

Skipper Stuart Beasley then held on to a sharp catch at slip in Horne's next over, before Stuart Voss, standing up to Phillips took a great catch to leave the visitors in trouble.

Beasley (4-20) then replaced 16-year-old Horne who could only bowl six overs, and had immediate success, and although Poole's middle order batsman stuck around for 95 minutes for his 15 runs, Phillips returned and between them they were bowled out for 99.

With makeshift openers Coin Edney (2) and Caldwell (4) together with Matt Porter and Rhys Cole with his third duck on the trot, all back in the pavilion early, it was left to Simon Joslin and Beasley (42) to stabilise the situation.

They added 42 for the fifth wicket, and with Voss adding 13, it was left to Joslin (13 not out) and Phillips (4 not out) to take Dorchester over the line.

■ HALF-CENTURY: Nick David

WEYMOUTH 2ND 104 ALL OUT

LOST TO BEAMINSTER 117 ALL OUT BY 13 RUNS

DESPITE a captain's performance from Michael Pearce, Weymouth 2nds crashed to their eighth defeat of the season, unable to overhaul a modest target of 117 set by Beaminster.

Pearce ripped out Beaminster's top order, bowling Fred Everitt and Simon Jones and having Colin Lloyd caught all for ducks, to leave the visitors in disarray at 12-3.

Veteran opener Nick David who scored a solid half-century, and Richie Runyard (16) steadied the boat in adding 34 for the fourth wicket, but with only captain Will Everitt (19) able to resist Pearce (5-11), supported by Harry Mitchell (3-38) and Ryan Sers (2-18), Beaminster finally mustered 117 all out with David contributing a fine 52 runs.

Weymouth made a better start with Ryan Monk (14) and Pete Gordon (19) once Tom Goatley (3-21) struck, wickets began to fall steadily.

Michael Pearce contributed 14 before Jones (4-24) took revenge by bowling him, but Mark Boggus (19) looked like he might earn Weymouth their first win until he fell victim to a textbook stumping by Fred Everitt off Jones.

Will Everitt said: "Superb performances with the ball from Simon Jones and Tom Goatly and great team spirit helped us edge a win in the tightest of games.

"A determined effort with the bat from Nick David saw us post a defendable total, and after tea the wickets of captain Pearce and Boggus proved to be vital in quashing Weymouth's hopes of victory.

"We're now focused on getting back to back wins when Cranborne visit on Saturday."

Michael Pearce commented: "I can't fault the guys for the work in the field and with the ball, but we are consistently under performing with the bat and it has cost us at least three or four wins in the first half of the season. I am looking forward to the second half of the season, and it is clear that if we produce with the bat we may be able to improve our points tally."

Division Three

COMPTON HOUSE 186-1 BEAT

BRIDPORT 184 ALL OUT BY NINE WICKETS

BRIDPORT were comprehensively beaten by Compton House by nine wickets.

Skipper Liam Toohill however had no complaints after his side had recovered from 2-2 in the second over to post a slightly under par 184 all out with Toohill leading the fight back with 58 supported by Dom Gape (66) and Wes Lewis (23).

Casley removed Mark Smith (1) and Duane Gay (0) in his first over but Toohill and Rod Condliffe moved the score on to 26 when Condliffe smashed a ball right at Compton's skipper Dunning who held on to the catch but broke his finger and played no further part.

Nigel Toohill (7) helped his son add 44 for the fourth wicket as Bridport recovered before he was bowled third ball after drinks, and after Liam's departure Dom Gape and Wes Lewis added a rapid73 to boost the visitors to 184 all out.

Neil Millard and Mike Harper had no problems in reply against the Bridport attack with only Liam Toohill (0-28) and Gay (0-36) able to stop the openers inevitable run machine.

The pair had got to within two of Bridport's score when Harper was caught by Smith off Lewis just two runs short of his century. Clark came in to hit the winning boundary leaving Millard 72 not out.

CATTISTOCK 99 ALL OUT LOST TO

STALBRIDGE 2ND 183 ALL OUT BY 84 RUNS

CATTISTOCK after a bright start are finding life hard at the moment.

Stalbridge's Michael Chant (46) and Clarkson (37) had put the visitors in a commanding position with the score standing at 115-1 after just 19 overs.

But captain Ben Gollidge (4-44) brought himself and Martin Oliver (5-32) on and they removed the other nine batsmen for just 76 runs, with only tailender Moore (23 not out) able to score many.

Cattistock never recovered from losing Billy Walbridge to the third ball of the reply, when the ball unluckily rolled back on to his stumps, and slumped to 45-6.

Colin Mullins (19) and Lee Anderson (23) added 40 for the seventh wicket with some quickfire shots but the hosts were never going to reach their target.

Division Five North & West

BRIDPORT 119 ALL OUT LOST TO ABBOTSBURY

123-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS

BRIDPORT 2nds crashed to an eight wicket defeat at home to Abbotbury.

Rod Gay displayed all his experience with some delightful shots in his 38, but once he and Ben Briscoe (30) departed, only 14-year-old Cerne Iversen with 17 showed anything with the bat.

Krish Subramium (4-24) was the pick of the visitors' bowlers well supported by Pretty (3-11).

Abbotbury made a quick start in reply but with Briscoe bowling Pengelly for 11 and Dan White dismissing Kneebone (3), they looked in some trouble at 28-2, but Steve Budd (32 not out) and Backhouse (58 not out) saw them comfortably home.

Iversen earned praise from captain Jamie Dollman for his efforts with the bat and also behind the stumps.

which might have been easier but for a superb 99 from A Beale.

Skipper Hugh Rathbone won the toss and invited the visitors to bat, and got off to a great start when Paul Martin (3-30) produced a superb ball to remove A Cornel (4).

Without contributing many runs, Thorne (1) was well caught by Ade Phillips at slip, and Jenkins (9) helped Beale move the score to 55-2 before Terry Field (3-36) struck three times in quick succession to leave the visitors 55-5.

However H Barnes (35) joined the opener and they added 86 for the sixth wicket before Martin bowled Beale one short of a deserved century.

Phillips then had Barnes caught behind by Chris Lamb and Phillips (3-51) polished off the tail.

Beaminster's reply saw a makeshift opening partnership parted early when Chris Lamb was yorked by G Horne.

However the experienced duo of Stuart Lindsay, who played steadily for his 23 with some lovely angled glides through the gully area, and Martin hitting four 4's and a six in his rapid 35, added 48 for the second wicket.

■ GOOD KNOCK: Steve Batey

James (2) went cheaply but a fifth wicket stand of 46 between Rathbone (47 not out) and Phillips (23) ensured Beaminster stayed on course, before David Persey (14no) helped Rathbone steer them to victory.

UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI 199-4 BEAT

WHIMPLE 198 ALL OUT BY SIX-WICKETS.

UPLYME & Lyme Regis 2nds surged to a convincing six-wicket victory at the King George V Playing Field on Saturday writes Howard Larcombe.

Visiting Whimble batted first and made a solid start clocking-up 37 before Uplyme first team all-rounder Steve Batey struck twice in quick succession.

A third wicket stand of 71 between Whimble skipper Barry Wright (55) and Grant Northover, a name familiar in West Dorset sporting circles, (66) took the score up to 115-3.

The hosts then took wickets at regular intervals with youngsters Rhys Davies (23) and Ollie Lee (3-17) returning the best figures as Whimble were dismissed for 198 after 39 overs.

The hosts reply got off to a shaky start with Shannon Grossberg and Alfie Bell-worth both failing to trouble the scorers. But skipper and opening bat Dave Norman (49) was going well at the other end. Norman was then joined by Batey (76no) in a 109 run stand for the third wicket.

It was then left to Batey and Mike Holding (44no) to see the side home in the 40th over.

The Uplyme & Lyme Regis 1st XI's scheduled trip to Bridestowe was rained-off without a ball being bowled.

WHITE HORSE 94 ALL OUT LOST TO BROAD-

WINDSOR 112 ALL OUT BY 18 RUNS

BROADWINDSOR maintained their challenge to retain their title with an 18 run victory at Bradford Abbas on a poor wicket, although at one stage it looked like the hosts might spring a surprise when they were 70-2 in reply.

Asked to bat first, Chris Park with 39 in his first game of the season, and Steve Phillips (19) put on over 50 for the first wicket, but no one else could muster much, and Broadwindsor were bowled out for 112.

White Horse's top four acquitted themselves quite well, all getting starts, and were 70-2 when Ade Phillips (4-15) entered the action.

Three wickets in an over turned the game the visitors way, and with Ian Johnson bagging 2-6 and Murray Legg a brace, Bradford Abbas succumbed to 94 all out to give Broadwindsor a slender win.

SCHOOLS ATHLETICS

Top performances at county event

EIGHT Sir John Colfox athletes representing West Dorset secured county titles at the recent Dorset Schools Area Championships held at Ashdown, Poole. In absolutely terrible weather conditions with high winds from every direction making life difficult for every athlete, particularly high jumpers who found the bar often being blown off, there were some outstanding performances from the 32 Bridport representatives.

Holly Butt was crowned 100m and 200m county champion for an amazing fifth consecutive year, whilst Will Bowen-Ashwin was also a double champion, winning the javelin and hammer. Honor Slade, Lucie Fry, Ali Tuck and Ryan Smith were also hammer champions, with both Tuck and Smith expected to have won their relevant discus titles had the weather been better.

All of them were selected to represent the county at the South West Schools Championships last weekend

Junior girls go close in regional finals

THE SIR John Colfox School junior girls team finished a superb third in the regional final of English Schools Championships held at Exeter on June 18th with outstanding performances from Beth Hedges and Rosie Jones.

In a format that is based on team performance, with 30 points the maximum and one the fewest, every athlete's achievement counts for points, and both Jones in the 1500m and Hedges in the long jump scored in excess of 20 points.

PE teacher and coach Andy David said: "Once again it is imperative to emphasise the importance of the whole team, as every point counts."

"Some girls were doing events like the hurdles and high jump for only the second time competitively so they deserve huge amounts of credit for accepting

Loders win primary schools championships

OVER 130 athletes from nine schools took part in the West Dorset Primary Schools Quaddkids Athletics Championships held at The Sir John Colfox School last week which saw Loders School finish victorious.

The event involved four boys and girls from each school competing in four events; long jump, howler throw, 75m and 600m, and finishing with the 8 x 50m relay.

Loders (1489) won the team trophy by 90 points with Salway Ash (1399) second and Parrett & Axe third with 1326 points.

It was extremely close in the race for top individual boy with Salway Ash's George Wyrill (254) just heading off runner up Tom Hughes of Loders by three points, with Jordan Knottley of Parrett & Axe (223) third.

Loders Olivia Willmore won the girls title with 222 points with Ceri Edwards of Parrett & Axe (205) second and St Catherine's Bronwyn Wright (177) third.

The winners were presented with their awards by Mrs Taylor, Headteacher of The Sir John Colfox School.

The schools that competed were: Greenford, Beaminstor St Mary's Parrett & Axe, Stb Mary's Bridport, Burton Bradstock, Thorners, St Catherine's, Salwayash and Loders.

Shipton Gorge invites table tennis players

SHIPTON Gorge Table Tennis Club will hopefully, once again, be fielding teams during the forthcoming season, in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd divisions of the Weymouth & Dorchester Table Tennis League.

In previous years, the club's players have achieved some excellent results against a variety of players from other teams in the area.

Currently Shipton are looking for any local players who might be interested in joining its existing league players at all levels.

If you think you might enjoy competitive table tennis or perhaps are new to the area, or are thinking of getting back into the game after not having played for a while, why not come along to an informal practice session at Shipton Gorge Village Hall on Tuesday, July 17th at 7pm

If you can't make that date, but would still be interested, call Eddy Buck on 01308 898278, ed.tinto@tiscali.co.uk or Peter Green on 01308 458023, peter@greenmg.co.uk.

Are there any potential county cricketers out there?

DORSET Cricket Board's Cricket Development Director Keith Brewer has asked for all Dorset U13 and U15 Cup Managers to forward details of any players that qualify for a performance award.

Any U13 who has scored 30 or more runs or U15 who has scored 50 or more runs, anyone taking three or more wickets or three or more catches/stumpings can claim a Merit Award for their performance.

Any club who have players that meet any of these criteria is asked to send Keith the players name, the details of the performance, the opponents and the date on which it was achieved.

Olympics no barrier for tournament

BOWLS ROUND-UP

DESPITE difficulties attracting the usual number of entrants to the 53rd annual Weymouth & Portland Bowls Tournament because of perceived concerns about traffic access and congestion as well as parking and increased accommodation costs during Olympic year, numerous local clubs including those from London, Weston-super-Mare, Bristol and Poole have registered teams.

The tournament, a regular event on the bowling calendar, in fact fall between the end of the Olympics and the commencement of the Paralympics, meaning traffic access to the town and car parks will be open as usual.

In addition the organisers are able to offer entrants car parking vouchers valid at the Swannery and Lodmoor car parks which provide access to the Melcombe Regis and Greenhill club's at a cost of £15 for the week.

The event will be played at the Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, Greenhill and Wellworthy clubs between August 20th and 24th, and will be officially opened by the Deputy Mayor, Ray Banham. The final will be played at Greenhill Bowling Club.

This year the Tournament will take a different format to normal with the introduction of a High 5 Open Classic competition that will be open to teams of five players; men, ladies or mixed.

Teams will be drawn into groups with each team in a group playing an inter-group round-robin. Each team will be free to arrange themselves to play two sessions each day.

In their first session each team will play games of singles and rinks, and in their second session play pairs and triples. Each day points will be allocated to each team's individual game and overall match result within their group.

The winning teams from each group and the best overall runners-up from the groups will go through to a knock-out semi-final and final contest.

The remaining teams will be entered into a knock-out Plate Competition requiring teams to arrange themselves to play only pairs and triple contests. For the entry fee of only £6 per player, teams will be guaranteed four days of bowling.

Also by popular demand the usual knock-out Men's Triples competition will be held each evening, Monday to Thursday with the final scheduled to be played on the Friday Final's Day. Throughout the week, food and refreshments will be available for purchase at each of the greens by competitors and spectators.

Sponsorship for this year's tournament is currently being provided by Weymouth & Portland Council; Co-operative Funeral Care; Bluebird Care, Weymouth & West Dorset, and Jenny Andrews, ensuring that all High 5 Open Classic and Plate competition finalists and the Men's Triples finalists will be well rewarded, with prize monies totalling £1,500 at stake on final day.

There are still some vacancies in both the High 5 Open Classic and the Men's Triples competitions, so anyone contemplating entering a team is urged to submit their entry asap.

Tournament Secretary Doug Wise said: "The Olympics coming to the town this year, has proved a deterrent for many of the regular competitors that normally attend from all over the UK."

"This is the reason why the usual straight knock-out Men's Single and Pairs, Ladies Pairs and Mixed Pairs contests have been replaced this year by what we have called the 'High Five' Open Classic competition, which has the added incentive that entrants are assured of four days of bowling."

"Prize monies from our sponsors have been forthcoming and we are currently awaiting confirmation from the Kings Hotel Group that they will once again be sponsoring the evening Men's Triples competition as usual."

Entry forms and tournament details have been distributed to the majority of bowling clubs throughout the county, but if additional forms are required they can be requested from Dave Wise on 01305 783470.

BRIDPORT OUTDOOR

THERE was an outstanding performance by Bridport A in the South Dorset League when they beat hitherto unbeaten Greenhill A by one shot 67-66 with Roy Lidington, Keith Brooks, Brian Conisbee and Chris Thorne finishing strongly over the last six ends to triumph 26-19.

The men's teams were all away on the same evening in the County League, and returned home with varied results.

In Division One they recorded a 64-61 success over Dorchester A, thanks largely to the rink of Roy Lidington, Keith Brooks, Brian Iversen and Chris Thorne who won 30-16, although Ian Corke, Mike Smith, Bob Taylor and Brian Rumble tied 21-21.

Bridport A lost at Weymouth & Melcombe Regis by the narrow margin of three shots 51-54 with Max Dare, Paul Tibble, Billy Street and Ken Sanger claiming two points with a 23-18 success, while Bridport B suffered a narrow defeat at Sherborne 56-58, although they picked up four points through Philip Wilson's four finishing 21-19 and Mel Griffiths' rink winning 19-18.

The men have also found time to play two friendlies, winning narrowly at home 68-66 against Yeovil with Max Dare, Brian Parker, Peter Scott and Clive Langdon top scoring 22-11, and then beating Chardstock 79-57; Roy Lidington, Dave Hocking and Paul Tibble highest scorers with 24-11.

The ladies had two home games in their County League, the Division One squad going nap over Wimborne 81-35.

Top scorers were Cath Gundry, Alison Tibble, Margaret Clapp and Sue Hosking who won 32-10, and not far behind were Laura Taylor, Pat Cornick, Delphine Street and Sheila Jones, victors by 29-9.

The third rink of Pamela Daters, Barbara Iversen, Rosemary Brooks and Melody Watts finished 20-16.

In Division Two Bridport were beaten 45-59 by Branksome Park.

BRIDPORT INDOOR

with Brian Baker VAL DODDS, Ann Parkins & Margaret Pestelle's Aphroditides ended Tony Sharood, Brian Legg & Edna Cumberland's Eros 100 per cent start to the season in the Evening League drawing 12-12.

Mary Hansford, Hugh Rees & Jenny Harding's Hades were the week's top gods with a 19-4 win over Zeus. Penny Pither, Liz Walker & Ivor Parker's Apollo (the god of music) played all the right notes as they beat Helios 17-11.

Kevin Moyes, John Pestelle & Peter Hunt's Hermes silenced Pan 21-12. David Drake, Beryl Stork & Andy Marsh's Poseidon finished with a three count to beat Athena 12-8.

Meanwhile Hunt, Rees & Morgan's Sprinters are setting the pace in the Morning League, a 5,3,1 finish put paid to the Swimmers 19-10.

Brian Cattell, Reg Dadds & Pestelle's Archers shot down the Gymnasts 21-4. Joan Higman, Parkins & Sharood's Cyclists cruised to a 16-7 win over the Equestrians.

Keith Peraux, Kay Cox & Brian Walsh's Divers scored two big five counts as they defeated Hurdles 15-11. Finally Pat Anderson, Rose & Chris Everest's Sailors cruised past the Wrestlers 10-8.

LYME REGIS

with Paul Moffitt THIS week only one of the men's league teams was in action along with the ladies.

The ladies had a convincing 8-2 win against Poole Park, a team which usually causes Lyme problems, so this is a good result.

Unfortunately the men's 'A' team took a hammering off the opposition from Weymouth/Melcombe Regis, losing all 10 points.

In the ladies Edna Paisley Lyme scraped home by a single shot against Greenhill 'A'.

On the friendly front there was a win for the men against Seaton. A mixed team went away to Topsham, always a popular day out, where they too secured a win.

Finally, congratulations go to Paul Moffitt, Peter Eagles and John Eaton who secured themselves a place in the Dorset Men's Triples final and with it a trip to Worthing.

This was a fine achievement considering our 'boss', Paul Pomeroy, was sidelined by injury and was forced to watch in frustration and some nail-biting as his team nailed the quarter and semi-finals in dramatic fashion.

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Diment takes Seaside's helm

LYME Regis football club management committee has appointed Karl Diment as successor to Robin Townsend.

Townsend left at the end of last season to take up an appointment as joint-manager of his hometown Bridport FC having led The Seaside to a record haul of trophies in his three years in charge.

Diment, who was appointed last Wednesday, is however no stranger to silverware and has enjoyed a successful career as both player and player-manager.

The 42-year-old turned out as a youngster for the powerful Misterton club of the late 1980s before winning a league and cup double with Merriott Rovers in 1995.

From here Diment headed in Western League circles appearing for Bridport and captaining Chard Town, Warminster, Street and Frome before returning to the Perry Street League and a player-manager's role at South Petherton.

Pethy went on to become 'the team to beat' winning three successive Premier division titles (2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07) under Diment's stewardship.

In an exclusive interview with VIEW SPORT Diment confirmed he was relishing the task ahead, he said: "Lyme Regis FC is renowned amongst local football circles, I'm honored to have been offered the job."

"I've inherited a superb squad of players and really hope all will stay and attempt to retain the Premier division title for the first time in the club's history."

"I know a lot of them, having had some great matches against them over the years, and also managing several of the lads as manager of the PSL pick-of-the-league team - I'm really looking forward to working with them."

EXCLUSIVE

by Howard Larcombe
 howard@pemedi.co.uk

Yeovil-based Diment, who confirmed he would ideally only appear from the substitutes bench if required, will be assisted by Tim Edwards who captained the Seaside in their quadruple cup and league success in 2004-05 and has since played for all three Lyme teams with distinction.

"Tim's knowledge of the local players will be a great help for the upcoming season, I'm looking forward to working with him and continue to help the club find success."

The Seaside begin their pre-season training at the Davey Fort tonight (Wednesday) at 6.30pm (thereafter Mondays and Wednesdays) - all players, old and new, are welcome.

Lyme have been handed a bye as they begin their defence of the Coronation cup. The Reserves begin their Division One cup campaign with a home tie against newly relegated West & Middle Chinnock.

The Bantams, awarded an 11th hour promotion to division three, have been handed an away tie in round one of the John Fowler cup.
